Dear Mailchimp

This letter is written in response to your notification to me of a complaint received about my emails on 16 June 2016. The emails in question are in my account.

My response to this complaint is as follows:

Allegations of Copyright Violation / Digital Millennium Copyright Act

The claims of copyright violation should be rejected because the complainant does not hold the copyright to the material in question, is not the designated representative of the copyright holder, and therefore lacks standing to assert that my use of the material is a violation of any of the owner's rights.

This communication to you is a DMCA counter notification letter as defined in 17 USC 512(g)(3):

I declare, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief that the complaint of copyright violation is based on mistaken information, misidentification of the material in question, or deliberate misreading of the law.

My name, address, and telephone number are as follows:

Milad Oskouie on behalf of
Platinum Avenue Holdings Pty Ltd
8 Ward St Willoughby Sydney NSW 2068
Ph: 0499 615 845

I hereby consent to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which I reside (or, if my address is outside the United States, any judicial district in which you, the ISP, may be found).

I agree to accept service of process from the complainant.

My actual or electronic signature follows:

Milad Oskouie

Having received this counter notification, you are now obligated under 17 USC 512(g)(2)(B) to advise the complainant of this notice, and to restore the material in dispute (or not take the material down in the first place), unless the complainant files suit against me within 10 days.
