Subject: Fwd: Re: Request to Lock Domain; TRO Issued

Dear Customer,

Bluehost has received the attached document requesting or ordering us to perform certain actions with regard to your account. The document has been reviewed and appears to be valid and in order. If you possess official documentation (such as a more recent court order invalidating the order presented to us) indicating these actions should not be taken, please provide any such documentation before 8/9/2017, or we will carry out the specified actions.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions.

It was attached to my original email and is attached again. Please take this action without notice to the Defendant, which would destroy the ability to protect the asset, and comply with the Order.
