Re: Bmaddox Enterprises LLC. v. Oskouie, et. al., 17 Cv. 1889 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

Defendants have moved this Court for a stay of the action for six months because Mr. Oskouie has leukemia. It has, however, come to our attention that the President of Plaintiff, Brandon Maddox, has been harassing people and making false statements to, among other things, Matthew Miller an FBI agent falsely claiming that Mr. Oskouie is lying about his cancer. In addition, he has been harassing Mr. Oskouie's doctor and having people call him and ask privileged information about his illness. Attached are emails and a post seeking people to act on his behalf.

We respectfully request that Plaintiff and Mr. Maddox be instructed by the Court to cease and desist in harassing his doctor and falsely accusing him of lying.

Respectfully,

Saul Roffe

Irritating to say the least. Keep your focus on getting well.

I wondered about that. He called to tell me he had learned from your doctor that you did not really have cancer at all. I doubted it because it seems like strange thing to lie about and I was also not sure how he would get such information. In the US, it is illegal for doctors to give out that type of information without the patient's consent. Did your doctor tell him anything? I assume you actually have cancer.

Thank you. Fixed.

I'm just keeping you update, but Mr Maddox decided to hire someone in Iran to call my doctor's office and obtain information about me.

It's getting very frustrating for me. He wants to follow me and my family around for the rest of their lives.
